Attorney-Client Privilege Under Attack:
How-To’s on Avoiding the Hazards of Waiver and Breaking Caselaw Developments

Meredith S. Auten, Esquire
Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP
Philadelphia

Marisel Acosta, Esquire
Puerto Rico

A chapter from Corporate Investigations: Role of the Attorney
Pub. No. 5239, published April 2008

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2008 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Attorney-Client Privilege Under Attack: How-To’s on Avoiding the Hazards of Waiver and Breaking Caselaw Developments
Meredith S. Auten and Marisel Acosta, Esquires

I. Primary Purpose: Business v. Legal .................................................129
   A. Acting as an Attorney.................................................................129
   B. When Performing Legal Services, DO: .......................................130
      1. Make a Record of It...............................................................130
      2. Use Language .......................................................................130
      3. Require Others to Use Language .........................................130
      4. Limit Disclosure to Employees With a Need to Know ..........130

II. Best Practices for Protecting Privilege when Conducting an Internal Investigation........................................................................131
   A. Setting the Stage: At Outset of an Internal Investigation ........131
   B. Record Creation and Recordkeeping: Throughout the Investigation................................................................................132

III. Pressure to Waive Privilege in Corporate Investigations ................132
   A. DOJ Purports to Limit Prosecutors’ Ability to Seek Privileged Information .................................................................132
      1. The Thompson Memorandum ..............................................132
      2. The McNulty Memorandum.................................................132
      3. New DOJ Rules Governing Waiver Requests .....................133
      4. The Pressure Remains on Corporations to Waive Privilege.....................................................................133
   B. U.S. Sentencing Commission Amends Guidelines.....................134
      1. Effect .....................................................................................134
      2. Status ....................................................................................135
      3. Prospects of Enactm ent are Unclear ...................................135

IV. Selective Waiver of Privilege in Government Investigations...........135
   A. Selective Waiver ..........................................................................135
   B. In Re Qwest Communications Securities Litigation, 450 F. 3d. 1179 (10th Cir. 2006), Cert Denied, 75 U.S.L.W. (U.S. Nov. 13, 2006).....................................................................135
   C. Selective Waiver after Qwest .....................................................137
   D. Means to Strengthen Corporation’s Position on Continued Privileged Nature of Materials Shared with the Government .................................................................138
E. Proposed H.R. 5086 — Deferred Prosecution Agreements ....... 138

V. Joint Defense Agreements ................................................................. 138
   A. Joint-Defense Extension of Attorney-Client Privilege .......... 138
   B. Elements ................................................................................. 139
   C. Restrictions ............................................................................ 139
   D. Risks: Impact of Demands for Cooperation and Waiver of Privilege ...................................................... 139

VI. Crime-Fraud Exceptions ........................................................................ 141
   A. Generally .............................................................................. 141
   B. Elements of Exception ............................................................. 141
   C. Prima Facie Showing ............................................................... 141
   D. In Re Napster, Inc. Copyright Litigation, 479 F. 3d 1078 (9th Cir. 2007) ................................................................. 142
   E. In Re Grand Jury, 475 F. 3d 1299 (D.C. Cir. 2007) .......... 142
   F. In Re Green Grand Jury Proceedings, 492 F. 3d 976 (8th Cir. 2007) ................................................................. 143
   G. In Re Grand Jury Investigations, 445 F. 3d 266 (3rd Cir. 2006) ................................................................. 143
   H. Combating the Crime-Fraud Exception ............................ 144

VII. Grand Jury Representations ................................................................. 145
   A. Third-Party Grand Jury Subpoena – Privilege Review:
      In Re Grand Jury Subpoenas, 454 F. 3d 511 (6th Cir. 2006) .... 145

VIII. Waiver Through Special Committee’s Presentations of Its Attorney’s Investigations Report to Full Board................. 145
   B. After Ryan .............................................................................. 146

IX. Attorney-Client Privilege in the Context of a Parent-Subsidiary Joint Representation ............................................. 146
   A. In Re Teleglobe Communications Corporation,
      493 F. 3d 345 (3rd Cir. 2007) ................................................................. 146
   B. Teleglobe Guidance to Centralized In-House Counsel on How to Maintain Control over the Parent Company’s Privilege ........................................................................ 148

X. Partnership’s Waiver of Privilege as to Its Attorneys’ Communications with Its Partners ........................... 148