Federal Habeas Review of State Convictions

Thomas W. Dolgenos, Esquire
Philadelphia District Attorney’s Office
Philadelphia

A chapter from Habeas Corpus
Pub. No. 5335, published June 2008

To purchase this book:
• See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
• Email info@pbi.org, or
• Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2008 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Federal Habeas Review of State Convictions
Thomas W. Dolgenos, Esquire

I. What is Habeas Corpus? ................................................................. 3
   A. Federal Collateral Review of State Convictions ................... 3
   B. Also Collateral Review of Federal Convictions .................. 3
   C. Pretrial Petitions. Section 2241 .......................................... 3

II. Snapshot of Basic Habeas Procedure .............................................. 3
   A. Prisoner Files Form ............................................................... 3
   B. Pro se .................................................................................. 3
   C. Matter is Usually Referred ................................................... 3
   D. Summarily Dispose of Petition, or Order Response .......... 3
   E. Evidentiary Hearing ............................................................... 3
   F. Report and Recommendation .............................................. 3
   G. De novo ............................................................................. 4
   H. Certificate of Appealability .................................................. 4
   I. Government may Appeal without a COA .............................. 4
   J. Options after Court of Appeals Decision .............................. 4

III. Four-Sentence Historical Background .......................................... 4

IV. Exhaustion and Default .............................................................. 5
   A. Exhaustion Rule .................................................................. 5
      1. Claims must be Raised in State Court in Accordance with
         State Procedural Rules ....................................................... 5
      2. Claims must be Raised at All Levels of the State Appellate
         System .............................................................................. 5
      3. Federal Claim must be “Fairly Presented” to the State
         Courts .................................................................................. 5
      4. If the Exhaustion Question is Inordinately Complicated ...... 6
   B. Handling Unexhausted Claims ................................................. 6
      1. “Stay and Abey” ................................................................. 6
      2. “Mixed Petitions” ............................................................. 6
   C. Procedural Default ................................................................. 6
      1. “Plain Statement” Rule ...................................................... 6
      2. “Look Through” Rule ....................................................... 7
      3. “Independent and Adequate” Requirement ...................... 7
      4. Cause and Prejudice/Miscarriage of Justice .................... 7

V. Some Rules Governing Habeas Filings ......................................... 8
   A. The “Custody” Requirement ................................................. 8
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B.</td>
<td>Successive Petitions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C.</td>
<td>State of Limitations, 28 U.S.C. §2244(d)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
<td>Statutory Tolling</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>Equitable Tolling</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D.</td>
<td>Cognizability</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.</td>
<td>4th Amendment Claims</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
<td>Ineffectiveness Claims</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
<td>Errors of State Law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VI.</td>
<td>The AEDPA Standards</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A.</td>
<td>Standard of Review for Claims “Adjudicated” in State Courts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B.</td>
<td>Evidentiary Hearings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C.</td>
<td>Standard of Review for State Court Findings of Fact</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VII.</td>
<td>Two Final Rules: Retroactivity and Prejudice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B.</td>
<td>When does a Decision Become Final?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C.</td>
<td>Retroactivity v. Issue Preservation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D.</td>
<td>The Federal Habeas Prejudice Standard</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>