Trying Cases in Light of KSR (with hyperlink)

John W. McIlvaine, III, Esquire
The Webb Law Firm
Pittsburgh

A chapter from Patent Litigation after Ebay, MedImmune, KSR, Segraves, and Patent Reform

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2007 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Table of Contents

Trying Cases in Light of KSR
John W. McIlvaine, III, Esquire

I. Facts and Procedural History ................................................................. 101
A. Teleflex was Exclusive Licensee of the Engelgau Patent .............. 101
B. Teleflex Accused KSR of Infringing Claim 4 ................................. 101
C. The Federal Circuit Court Reversed the District Court .............. 101
   1. Particularly, the Federal Circuit Ruled .................................. 101
   2. The District Court had Failed to Make a Specific Finding .......... 101
   3. The Federal Circuit Stated that the Prior Art ..................... 101
   4. The Federal Circuit also Dismissed Arguments .................. 101

II. Supreme Court ..................................................................................... 101
A. The Supreme Court Granted Certiorari then Reversed ............ 101
B. The Court said that it had Set Forth an “Expansive and Flexible Approach” .......................................................... 101
   1. The Court Reaffirmed Graham v. John Deere .................. 102
   2. “A Court Must Ask whether the Improvement…” .............. 102
   3. The Court Characterized the TSM Test ............................ 102
   4. Patents should not be Granted to Advances .................... 102
C. Errors by the Federal Circuit ......................................................... 102
   1. The Supreme Court Stated that the Primary Purpose ............ 102
   2. The Supreme Court Reinvigorated the “Obvious-to-Try” ... 102
   3. The Supreme Court Distinguished “Hindsight Reconstruction” .......................................................... 102

III. Perspectives on KSR ........................................................................... 102
A. Subsequent Federal Circuit Cases .................................................. 102
   2. Pfizer, Inc. v. Apotex, Inc. .............................................. 102
   4. Z4 Technologies, Inc. v. Microsoft Corporation ............. 103
   5. Muniauction, Inc. v. Thomson Corp. and I-Deal, LLC .... 103
B. Chisum ............................................................................................... 104
   1. Professor Chisum has Stated ............................................. 104
   2. He Places Weight on the Post-KSR Federal Circuit ........ 104
C. The Patent Office...................................................................... 104
   1. The Patent Office has Revised ......................................... 104
   2. Examiners may Still Use TSM .......................................... 104
   3. The Guidelines Now Reemphasize .................................. 104
IV. Trying Cases in Light of KSR ................................................................. 104

A. It Appears that KSR’s Impact on Patent Litigation ......................... 104
   1. One Commentator Recently Stated ................................................. 104
   2. Prior to KSR, it was Generally Believed .............................. 104
   3. The Ultimate Question of Obviousness ..................................... 105
   4. Expert Declarations Submitted ............................................... 105

B. Initial Case Investigation .................................................................. 105
   1. KSR Appears to have Provided Fertile New Grounds ........... 105
   2. Where Obviousness was not Relied on Heavily ....................... 105
   3. Caution .................................................................................. 105

C. Reexamination ............................................................................... 105
   1. It should be Easier to Establish a Substantial New
      Question ................................................................................ 105
   2. Some Observers Say Inter Partes Reexamination ................ 105

D. Preliminary Injunction Motions ....................................................... 105
   1. Defendants will be Citing .................................................... 105
   2. The Lesson here for Defendants .......................................... 105

E. Jury Trials ...................................................................................... 106
   1. Juries Probably will not See Things ...................................... 106
   2. It Appears the Largest Impact for Jury Trials...................... 106
   3. Defendants will Want to Insert the “Common Sense” ........ 106
   4. Defendants will also Want to Emphasize the
      “No Rigid Rule” .................................................................... 106
   5. Defendants will Want to have Their Experts Say ............ 106
   6. On the Other Hand, Plaintiffs will Clearly Want to
      Marshall all Evidence .................................................................. 106
   7. Plaintiffs will Auger for a Jury Instruction .......................... 106

F. Discovery Requests ......................................................................... 106
   1. There Probably will not be a Major Change ......................... 106
   2. For Example, the “Market Demand” Language .................. 106
   3. In the Discovery Deposition of the Inventor ....................... 107

V. Conclusion .......................................................................................... 107

Appendix:

May 29, 2001)*