Current Issues in Medical Malpractice (2006)

Peter J. Hoffman, Esquire
Joan D. Plump, Esquire
Gregory L. Kallet, Esquire
McKissock & Hoffman, P.C.
Philadelphia

A chapter from Current Issues in Medical Malpractice
Pub. No. 4547, published December 2006

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2007 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Current Issues in Medical Malpractice

Chapter One

Current Issues in Medical Malpractice

Peter J. Hoffman, Esquire
Joan D. Plump, Esquire
Gregory L. Kallet, Esquire

I. Pennsylvania Supreme Court Adopts “Any Majority Rule” .......................1
II. Status of Joint and Several Liability Reform Attempts ..........................2
III. New Rules and Multiple New Cases Regarding the Certificate of Merit Requirement .................................................................3
IV. Amendments to the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure Governing Professional Liability .................................................................11
   A. Certificate of Merit ......................................................................11
   B. Venue ......................................................................................12
   C. Newer Rules ........................................................................12
   D. Newest Rules – Not Just About Professional Liability ...............14
V. The Medical Care Availability Act (“MCARE”) .......................................15
   A. Patient Safety .........................................................................15
   B. Medical Professional Liability .................................................16
   C. Insurance Reform ..................................................................21
   D. “Administrative Provisions” ....................................................22
VI. Standard of Care and Causation – Recent Case Law .................................22
   A. Existence of a Duty of Care is a Prerequisite to Maintain Medical Malpractice Claim .................................................................22
   B. Applicable Standard of Care – “Error of Judgment” ....................23
   C. Expert Witness Requirement ..................................................27
   D. Standard of Proof ..................................................................41
   E. Increased Risk of Harm ............................................................55
   F. Two Schools of Thought ..........................................................57
   G. Compensable Harm ................................................................58
VII. Privity .................................................................................................60
   A. Duty of Health Care Providers to Non-Patients and Third Parties 60
   B. Contractual Liability of a Doctor to the Patient – A Recent Case ....63
VIII. Informed Consent ..............................................................................63
H. Punitive Damages Must Be Based on Conduct on Which Liability is Premised ................................................................. 121
I. Discovery Violations: Late Production of Expert Reports .......... 122
J. Adverse Inference Instruction .................................................... 126
K. Jury Instruction on Contributory Negligence Was Reversible Error ......................................................................................... 126
L. Coordinate Jurisdiction Rule ........................................................ 127
M. Effect of Jurors Seeking Outside Expert Opinion ....................... 127