An Insider’s Look at How the Pennsylvania Disciplinary Process Works: A Practitioner’s Primer

Marc S. Raspanti, Esquire
(Miller, Alfano & Raspanti)
Member of the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania
Chairman of the Education Committee

Raymond Wierciszewski
Disciplinary Counsel-In-Charge of the District II Office of the Disciplinary Board

A chapter from the 12th Annual Health Law Institute, Volume II
Pub. No. 4170, published March 2006

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2006 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority. PBI seminars are developed in partnership with the Philadelphia Bar Association and the Allegheny County Bar Association.
Table of Contents

12th Annual Health Law Institute, Volume II

An Insider’s Look at How the Pennsylvania Disciplinary Process Works:
A Practitioner’s Primer

by Marc S. Raspanti, Esquire and Raymond Wierciszewski, Esquire ...............JJ-1

I. The Pennsylvania Attorney Disciplinary System ...........................................JJ-1
   A. Authority ..................................................................................................JJ-1
   B. Purpose ................................................................................................JJ-1
   C. Funding ................................................................................................JJ-1
   D. The Disciplinary System is comprised of ............................................JJ-1
   E. Types of Discipline ..............................................................................JJ-3
   F. The Disciplinary Process .....................................................................JJ-4

II. Recent Major Changes to The Pennsylvania Disciplinary System ..............JJ-12
   A. “Opening” the System ........................................................................JJ-12
   B. The “Deemed Admitted” Rule ..............................................................JJ-12
   C. Mandatory Professional Liability Insurance Disclosure .....................JJ-12

III. Issues of Particular Interest To Health Care Lawyers ..............................JJ-13
   A. RPC 5.5 ...............................................................................................JJ-13
   B. Pa.B.A.R. 302 .....................................................................................JJ-14
   C. RPC 8.5 ...............................................................................................JJ-16
   D. RPC 1.7 ...............................................................................................JJ-16
   E. RPC 1.9 ...............................................................................................JJ-18
   F. RPC 1.10 .............................................................................................JJ-18

IV. The Educational Function of The Disciplinary System .............................JJ-19