Power to Condemn (with hyperlinks)

David B. Snyder, Esquire
Fox Rothschild LLP
Philadelphia

A chapter from Understanding How Eminent Domain Works in Pennsylvania
Pub. No. 4368, published March 2006

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2006 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Table of Contents

Understanding How Eminent Domain Works in Pennsylvania

Chapter One
Power to Condemn

David B. Snyder, Esquire .......................................................................................................................... 1

I. Power to Condemn ................................................................................................................................. 1

A. Power to Take Property for a “Public Use” Without the Owner’s Consent ................................................................................................................................. 1

B. Inherent Attribute of Sovereignty ..................................................................................................... 1

C. Existed Prior to Adoption of the United States or Pennsylvania Constitutions ................................. 1

D. Exercising the Power of Eminent Domain ....................................................................................... 2

E. Constitution Provisions ..................................................................................................................... 2

F. Entities Have the Power of Eminent Domain ................................................................................... 3

G. Public Use Requirements ................................................................................................................ 3

H. Pre “Kelo” United States Supreme Court Cases ........................................................................... 4

   3. State court cases: Michigan ........................................................................................................... 6

   5. Post-Kelo legislation ...................................................................................................................... 11

      a. Federal: H. R. 4128 ................................................................................................................... 11

      b. Pennsylvania: HB 2054 and SB 881 ...................................................................................... 12

Attachments

H. R. 4128, Private Property Rights Protection Act of 2005, found at:

HB 2054, found at:
http://www.legis.state.pa.us/WU01/LI/BI/ALL/2005/0/HB2054.HTM

SB 881, found at:
http://www.legis.state.pa.us/WU01/LI/BI/ALL/2005/0/SB0881.HTM