Supreme Court Update 2007—Intellectual Property

George A. Frank, J.D., Ph.D.
Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP
Philadelphia

A chapter from the Intellectual Property Law Institute

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2007 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Table of Contents

Intellectual Property Law Institute

Chapter B:
Intellectual Property Licensing

George A. Frank, Esquire, Ph.D.

- In the 21st Century .............................................................. B-3
- What is Licensing? .............................................................. B-3
- What is a License? .............................................................. B-4

I. Licensing IP – Why? .............................................................. B-4
   A. “Old” View of IP ............................................................ B-4
   B. Changed View of IP ........................................................ B-4
   C. Why License Out? .......................................................... B-5
   D. Why License In? ............................................................ B-5

II. Licensing IP – How? .............................................................. B-5
    A. Traditional Approaches .................................................. B-5
    B. Modern Approaches ...................................................... B-5
    C. IP Donation ................................................................. B-6
    D. The Frank Rule ............................................................. B-6

III. Licensing IP – What? ............................................................ B-6

IV. Licensing IP – When? ............................................................ B-6

   General ................................................................................ B-6
   I. Exclusive or Non-Exclusive ............................................... B-7
   II. Term and Termination ...................................................... B-7
   III. A. Abatement of Infringement of Licensed IP Rights .......... B-8
        B. Infringement of Third-Party Patents by Licensee’s Activities .................................................. B-9
   IV. Assignability................................................................. B-9
   V. Scope ............................................................................ B-10
   VI. Royalty/Fees .................................................................. B-10
   VII. Assignee’s Obligation to Exploit ..................................... B-11
   VIII. Other IP Rights ......................................................... B-11
   IX. Dispute Resolution ......................................................... B-11
   X. Surviving Clauses .......................................................... B-12
   XI. Definitions—a Cautionary Note ...................................... B-12