Ten Steps to an Effective Internal Wage/Hour Audit

Robert W. Pritchard, Esquire
Littler Mendelson, P.C.
Pittsburgh

A chapter from Getting Paid in Pennsylvania: Basic Wage and Hour Law

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2007 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Table of Contents

Ten Steps to an Effective Internal Wage/Hour Audit

By Robert W. Pritchard, Esquire

Part I

Wage/Hour Audit Checklist

I. Who is the Employer? .......................... 123
   - Individuals as Employers .......................... 123
   - Joint Employment .................................. 123
   - Successor Employment ............................ 123

II. Is There an Employment Relationship? ............................................................. 123
    - Independent Contractors ......................... 123
    - Volunteers ......................................... 123
    - Trainees/Interns .................................... 123

III. Is the Activity at Issue Work? ................................................................. 124
     - The Basic Workday ................................. 124
     - Clothes Changing & Washing .................... 124
     - Travel Time ....................................... 124
     - Meal Periods ...................................... 124
     - Sleep Time ........................................ 124
     - On-Call Time ..................................... 124
     - Breaks ............................................. 125
     - Training .......................................... 125
     - Meetings .......................................... 125
     - Preliminary and Postliminary Activities ...... 125

IV. What Are the Minimum Wage Obligations? .............................................. 125

V. Where a Credit is Taken for Tips ................................................................. 126

VI. What is the Overtime Obligation? ............................................................. 126

VII. Is the Employee Exempt from the Receipt of the Minimum Wage? .......... 126
     - Executive ........................................... 127
     - Administrative ..................................... 127
     - Professional ....................................... 127
     - Salary Pay for Executive, Administrative & Professional Employees .... 128
     - Computer Occupations ......................... 128
     - Outside Sales ....................................... 129
     - Commission-Paid Employees of Retail & Service Establishments ...... 129
Part II
Ten Steps for Conducting a Successful Audit of Employees’ Overtime Exempt Status

First Step – Understand The Limits To Conducting A Review ..........133
Second Step – Resource Allocation .................................................134
Third Step – Determine If All Jobs Must Be Assessed .....................135
Fourth Step – Choose the First Business Unit To Be Reviewed ..........135
Fifth Step – Complete Review Of Remaining Business Units ..........135
Sixth Step – Verify That Exempt Employees Are Paid In The Required
Form ..................................................................................................135
Seventh Step – Assess Exempt Status ............................................136
Eighth Step – Determine Response To Adverse Assessment Of
Exempt Status ....................................................................................136
Ninth Step – Implement Corrective Steps ......................................137
Tenth Step – Ensure That An Appropriate Classification Process Exists
For The Future ..................................................................................137