The Practical Effect and Unintended Side Effects of Weast on the Burden of Proof, Presumptions, Inferences, Standard of Review, and Quantum of Proof

Charles W. Jelley, LLM
Tremba, Jelley & Welton, LLC
Greensburg

Jane M. Williams, Esq.
Sweet, Stevens, Tucker & Katz, LLP
New Britain

A chapter from 10th Annual Exceptional Children's Conference 2006

To purchase this book:
- See the PBI Online Bookstore at www.pbi.org
- Email info@pbi.org, or
- Call 1-800-932-4637

© 2006 Pennsylvania Bar Institute. All rights reserved.
This file is licensed only to the person downloading this file from PBI’s website, for printing and for saving to his or her personal computer. No further use is permitted. This file may not be shared electronically with any other person without the express written permission of the Pennsylvania Bar Institute.

The Pennsylvania Bar Institute does not render any legal, accounting, or other professional services. The Institute’s programs and publications are designed solely to help attorneys maintain their professional competence. In dealing with specific legal matters, the attorney using PBI publications or orally conveyed information should also research original sources of authority.
Table of Contents

The Practical Effect and Unintended Side Effects of Weast on the Burden of Proof, Presumptions, Inferences, Standard of Review and Quantum of Proof

Charles W. Jelley, L.L.M.; Jane M. Williams, Esq.  ................................................................. 1

I. Pretrial Burden – Burden of Pleading ............................................................... 4

II. Trial Burdens – Two Burdens .......................................................................... 5

A. Burden of Production .................................................................................... 5

B. Burden of Persuasion .................................................................................... 6

III. Presumptions ..................................................................................................... 6

A. Conflicting Presumption Theories ................................................................ 6

B. Types of Presumptions.................................................................................. 8

IV. Quantum of Evidence ....................................................................................... 8

A. Preponderance ............................................................................................... 8

B. Clear and Convincing ................................................................................... 8

C. Beyond a Reasonable Doubt ......................................................................... 8

D. Substantial Evidence..................................................................................... 8

V. Two Types of Standard of Review.................................................................. 8

A. Denovo Review............................................................................................. 9

B. Substantial Evidence..................................................................................... 9

VI. Case Summaries Regarding “Burden of Proof” ............................................ 9

(3rd Cir., January 23, 2006) ........................................................................... 9

D. West Platte R-II School District v. Wilson, 439 F.3d 782 (8th Cir.
March 2, 2006) ............................................................................................... 11

F. Carlisle School District v. Scott P., 62 F.3d 520 (3rd Cir.
October 24, 1995) ......................................................................................... 12

G. Blount v. Lancaster-Lebanon Intermediate Unit, 2003 WL 22988892

348 F.Supp. 866 (D.D.C. August 1, 1972).................................................. 14

June 23, 2003)............................................................................................. 14

April 2, 2002)............................................................................................. 15

L. Warren G., et al. v. Cumberland County School District, 190 F.3d 80
(3rd Cir. August 25, 1999).......................................................................... 15

VII. Modified Title VII Burden Shifting Approach to Decision Making in IDEA Due Process Disputes........................................................................... 16

A. Examples of a Burden Shifting Approach in IDEA Cases ................. 16